Introduction

In a relentless pursuit by the University of Mosul headed by Prof. Dr. Kossay Al-Ahmady, of keeping abreast with digitization technology being the international best alternative to ensure the durability of education under the circumstances of lockdown caused by the Corona pandemic. Information is a very essential component in research but it can only be used when provided with access. Researchers are overwhelmed with overflowing information and they are sometimes prone to plagiarized articles, predatory journals and fake news articles. Moreover, they experienced information explosion due to rapid developments of information and communications technologies. Thus, library researchers need to be informed with updated publications and other information resources. Librarians then should be more proactive in providing them access such as the current awareness.

Noticeably this bulletin is ordered according to the Dewey classification order and containing as appendix three indices: title index, author index & subject index which are ordered in alphabetic order. To consecutively provide students and researchers with recent publications that recently arrived.
