

North Star 1, Unit 3: Special Possessions

Vocabularies-with flashcards

Lecturer

Ashraf A. Dhannoon

special possession

Something you keep because it is important to you

mind (noun)

brain; the part of humans that thinks

modern (adj)

new; from present
day

breath (noun)

Air coming into or out of the mouth or nose

peaceful (adj)

Not fighting or worrying

popular (adj)

well-known; liked by
many people

protect (verb)

take care of; guard
from harm.

style (noun)

design; fashion;
pattern

temporary (adj)

Lasting for a short time only

traditional (adj)

Coming from the past

appreciate (verb)

to be grateful;
knowing something is
good and important

good luck charm (noun)

An object that brings you good luck if you keep it

cool (adj)

A way too describe something nice or good

pass down (verb)

To give something to your children or the next generation sentimental value (noun)

Something that helps you remember family or friends

pack rat (noun)

Someone who keeps things they don't need

recycle (verb)

To use something again

get rid of something (verb)

Throw something away

collector (noun)

A person who keeps getting more and more of something

hold onto (verb)

To keep something; not to lose it

give away (verb)

To let someone else have something you have dormitory

It is a large building with rooms for students.