

Vision, Mission, and Objectives of the Department of Management Information Systems - College of Administration and Economics - University of Mosul.

First. Vision

Providing the labor market with specialists capable of dealing with environmental changes in light of what the technological revolution has produced of technological and cognitive requirements in order to employ them to achieve sustainable excellence.

Second. Mission

Keeping pace with technological development to ensure the provision of distinguished, high-quality educational services and achieving an added educational value received by the beneficiaries that contributes to enriching the specialized knowledge field to keep pace with labor market requirements.

Third. Objectives

The Department of Management Information Systems seeks to achieve several objectives, the most important of which are:

1. Graduating and developing scientific cadres capable at the level of both undergraduate and postgraduate studies in the field of Management Information Systems.
2. Continuous investigation and research into everything that is new in Management Information Systems in its various developed forms.
3. Making cognitive and scientific developments in the field of specialization a foundation and a launching pad toward excellence.
4. Supporting state institutions and the private sector with specialized cadres, professionally and academically, in the field of Management Information Systems.
5. Pursuing contemporary and emerging developments by holding seminars, conferences, and specialized workshops in the fields of Management Information Systems.

6. Achieving community service goals by organizing training courses for cadres of all organizations in order to spread cognitive awareness.
7. Developing institutional status by providing management consultations to industrial and service organizations.
8. Modernizing the infrastructure and superstructure in the department and developing them in a way that is compatible with contemporary technological developments.