College of Arts:

The College of Arts was one of the first colleges to be opened at the University of Mosul. It was opened officially in 1966. The aim of its opening was to achieve the objectives of higher education by preparing students to be researchers and specialists in the humanities.

Vision:

Global leadership and academic excellence through our knowledge, culture, and values in linguistic, philosophical, social, media, and digital studies.

Mission:

Preserving our culture, values, and identity is the foundation of our commitment to education, learning, scientific research, and community service.

Our college strives to develop fundamental and advanced academic programs in various humanities disciplines according to globally and regionally recognized standards.

This contributes to preparing competent graduates who can support their communities in linguistic, philosophical, social, media, and digital fields.
