

Department of Arabic Language

Department Vision:

Preparing a specialized scientific teaching staff that has a clear vision in the performance of teaching arts. And expand the circle of linguistic, literary and critical research in all directions.

Department Mission:

Forming a conscious and educated generation capable of carrying out the burdens of teaching Arabic. And deepening cultural and historical awareness of the Arabic language.

Objectives of the Department:

Consolidating the student scientifically by providing curricula that qualify him to obtain a bachelor's degree. And preparing an advanced cadre to obtain higher degrees in master's and doctoral degrees in linguistic, literary and critical disciplines.