

Workshop title: Developing Electronic management skills

A brief overview of the workshop: On Tuesday, 11/26/2024, the Qualification, Employment and Follow-up Unit at the College of Petroleum and Mining Engineering held a workshop entitled (Developing electronic management skills) for fourth-year students in the Department of Petroleum Reservoir Engineering, delivered by Dr. Ibrahim Adil Al-Hafidh .

Outline: The workshop discussed the development taking place in the field of information and communications technology and the accompanying emergence of new patterns in various fields of work, including electronic management. The necessity of keeping pace with the development taking place in the field workshop aimed to guide and educate students of information technology and employing this knowledge in the field of electronic management, which is one of the necessities of the modern era that the world is witnessing today, and it is within the program of the National Strategy for Education and Higher Education 2022-2031 .

Media and Government Communications Division

News details at the following link

<https://uomosul.edu.iq/petroleumengineering/%d9%88%d8%b1%d8%b4%d8%a9-%d8%b9%d9%85%d9%84-33/>

