

Workshop Title: The rehabilitation, employment and follow-up unit and its relationship to the labor market.

A brief summary of the workshop: On Monday, 12/30/2024, the Qualification, Employment, and Follow-up Unit at the College of Petroleum and Mining Engineering held the workshop entitled (The Qualification, Employment, and Follow-up Unit and its relationship to the labor market). The workshop targeted the first-year students of the college's three Broad outlines: The workshop included two lectures. The first was an introductory lecture about the rehabilitation, employment and follow-up unit and the mechanism of communication with students and graduates via the unit's official email, delivered by the unit's head, assistant teacher Zainab Hazem Hamid. F While the second lecture touched on the most important mining projects and their relationship to the labor market and how to employ students' scientific and academic skills to create their own projects, which was delivered by Dr. Iman Qasim Yahya Al-Awjar, and it is within the program of the National Strategy for Education and Higher Education 2022-2031.