

4 November 2024

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul holds a training course for college affiliates on combating financial and administrative corruption.

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul held a training course for heads of departments, officials of administrative and academic units, and staff members on combating financial and administrative corruption on Sunday, November 3, 2024.

The course consisted of two lectures, delivered by:

- Assistant Professor Dr. Marwan Salim Ali
- Assistant Professor Dr. Younis Muayad Younis

The sessions discussed the role of international strategies in combating administrative and financial corruption and their application in university institutions. The course aimed to introduce the concepts of transparency and integrity as essential tools in fighting corruption within educational institutions.

The event was sponsored and attended by the Dean of the College, along with the Administrative Assistant, and was organized in collaboration with the Continuing Education Unit.

