

December 4, 2024

College of Political Science, University of Mosul, Hosts a Workshop on the Topic of Cyber Extortion

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul hosted a workshop on the topic of cyber extortion on Tuesday, December 3, 2024.

The workshop aimed to raise awareness about the severity of this issue and ways to confront it, thereby contributing to the protection of students and equipping them with the necessary knowledge to deal with this phenomenon.

The workshop was attended by the Dean of the College, Assistant Professor Dr. Tarek Muhammad Tayeb Dhaher. The session was chaired by the Scientific Assistant, Lecturer Dr. Khairallah Sibhan Al-Jubouri, and presented by a group of specialists from the University Security Center and Nineveh Institutes (Second Complex). The event witnessed strong participation from our dear students across all academic levels, who enriched the activities through their questions, inquiries, and interventions, which were clearly addressed by the concerned experts.

November 15, 2024

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul hosted an introductory seminar on the General Population Census, in which its importance was discussed in various fields including planning, development, basic services, investment, projects, reconstruction, and others.

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul hosted an introductory seminar organized by the Nineveh Statistics Directorate on the General Population and Housing Census on Wednesday, November 13, 2024.

The seminar aimed to clarify the importance of the census in the fields of planning and development, basic services, investment and projects, reconstruction, equitable resource distribution, and others.

It was concluded that the census is a vital and fundamental process for any state, including Iraq, as it provides a comprehensive snapshot of society at a specific point in time. The data collected play a critical role in decision-making related to development and future planning.

The seminar proceedings were chaired by the Scientific Assistant, Lecturer Dr. Khairallah Sibhan Al-Jubouri, and featured a presentation by the Director of Nineveh Statistics, Mr. Nawfal Suleiman Talab.

The event was held as part of a campaign launched by the college on the mentioned date under the patronage of the University President, Professor Dr. Qusay Kamal Al-Din Al-Ahmadi, and under the supervision and attendance of the Dean of the College, Assistant Professor Dr. Tarek Muhammad Tayeb Dhaher, along with members of the college council, several faculty members, staff, and students who filled the discussion hall.

November 17, 2024

The Awareness Campaign Team for the Census from the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Visits the Adwar Organization

The Scientific Assistant of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul, Lecturer Dr. Khairallah Sibhan Al-Jubouri, led part of the voluntary awareness team for the census at the Adwar Foundation for Democracy and Sustainable Development on Thursday, November 14, 2024.

Discussions between the two parties focused on the General Population and Housing Census and its significance in development, state policy-making in economic and social fields, future visions, and more. Emphasis was also placed on the necessity of supporting this process in service of the public good.

This visit is part of the awareness campaign launched by the college to emphasize the importance of participation in the upcoming census scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday, November 20–21, 2024, God willing.

November 26, 2024

The Guidance Committee of the International Relations Department at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, organizes a workshop for students on Artificial Intelligence.

The Guidance Committee of the International Relations Department at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, held an instructional workshop for students on “Artificial Intelligence in Learning: Challenges and Opportunities” on Monday, November 25, 2024.

The workshop highlighted the role of artificial intelligence in education, particularly its contribution to enhancing the learning process through intelligent tools that support research and idea organization. Conversely, the technology also poses several challenges, such as excessive reliance on it and a weakening of critical thinking skills.

The workshop was held under the patronage of the Dean of the College and was delivered by Assistant Lecturer Nawar Basil Mahfouz and Assistant Lecturer Rawida Faisal Mohsen. It targeted second-year students.

October 2024

The Dean of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Attends

the Training Workshop on Psychological Rehabilitation

The Dean of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul, Assistant Professor Dr. Tarek Muhammad Tayeb Dhaher, attended the training workshop on psychological rehabilitation held in Erbil in September 2024.

The workshop aimed to build capacities and develop participants' skills on topics related to rehabilitation and community reintegration as essential mechanisms in post-conflict societies, with the goal of achieving positive sustainable peace.

The workshop was organized by the International Organization for Migration, lasted three days, and was attended and participated in by lecturers, academics, and specialists from both the Ministries of Higher Education and Migration and Displacement.

November 20, 2024

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Monitors Mosul City's Compliance with the Curfew in Conjunction with the General Population and

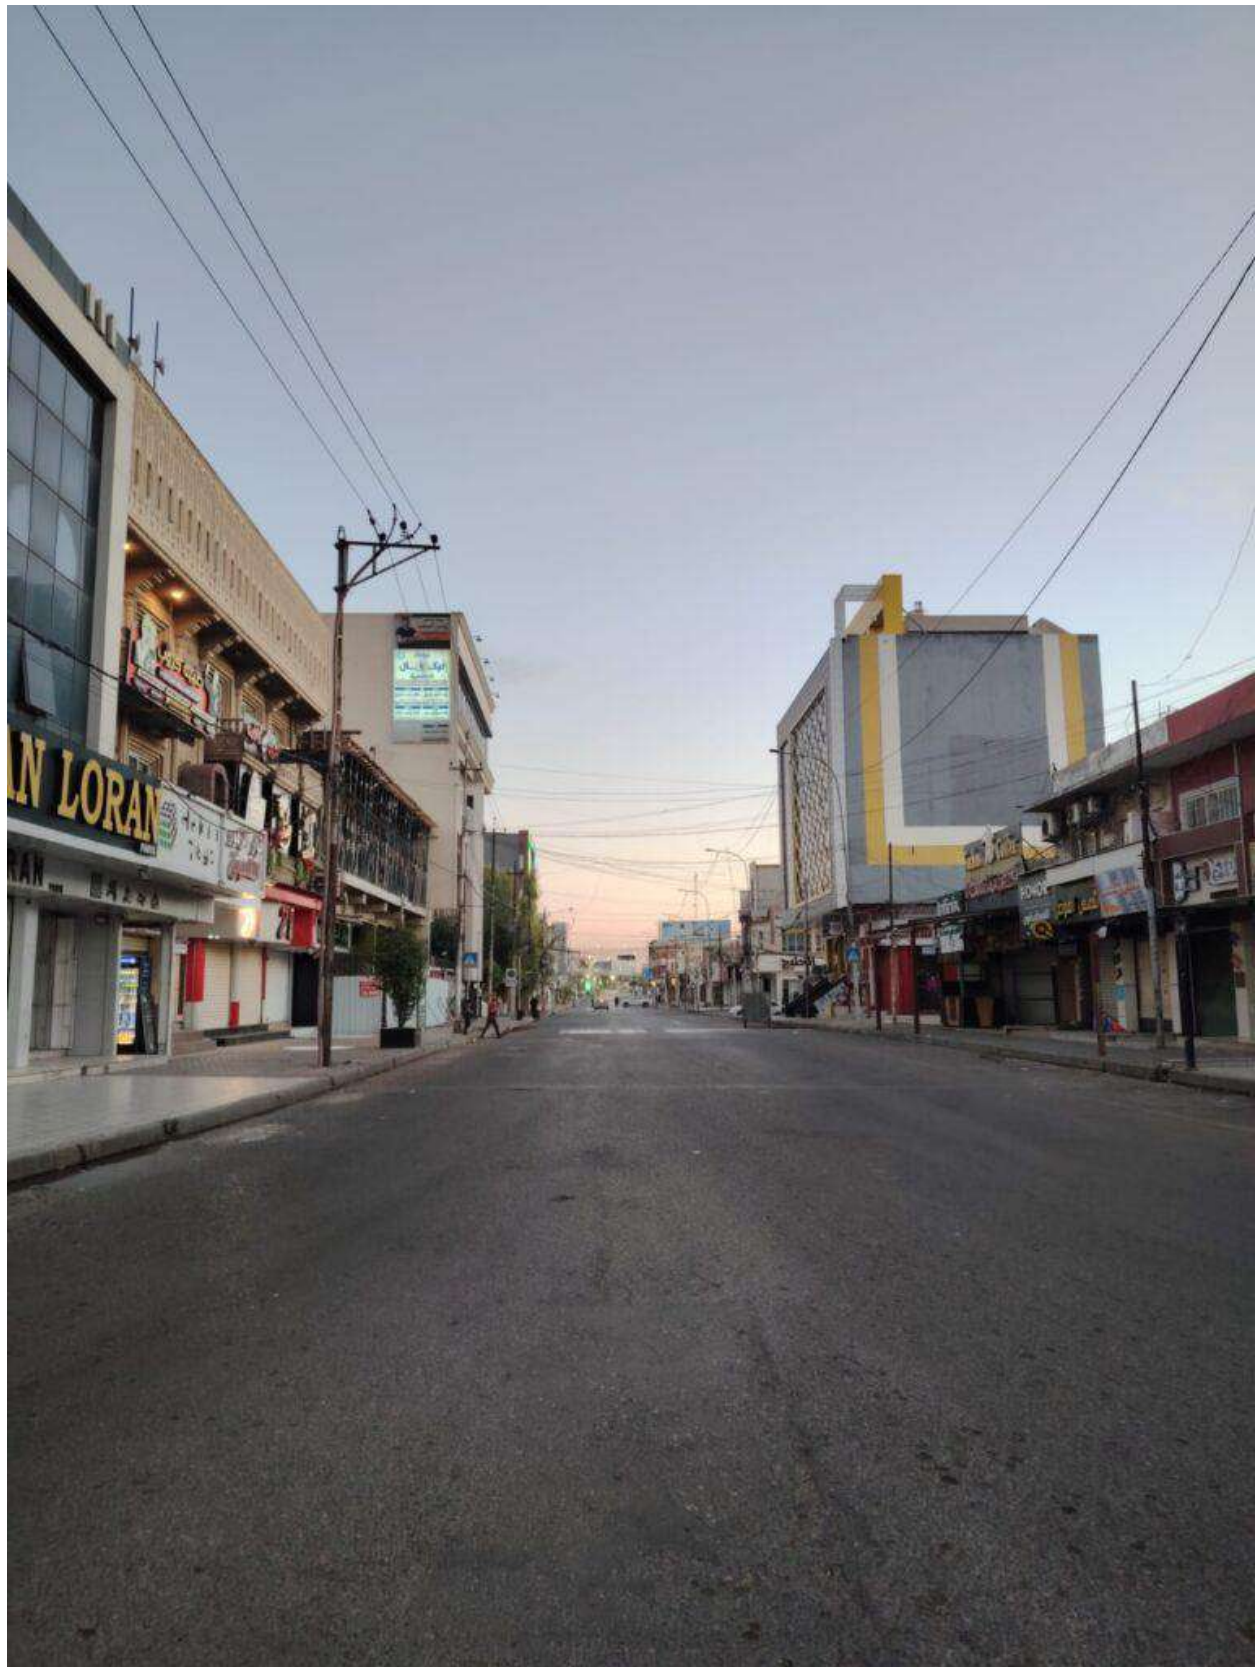

Housing Census

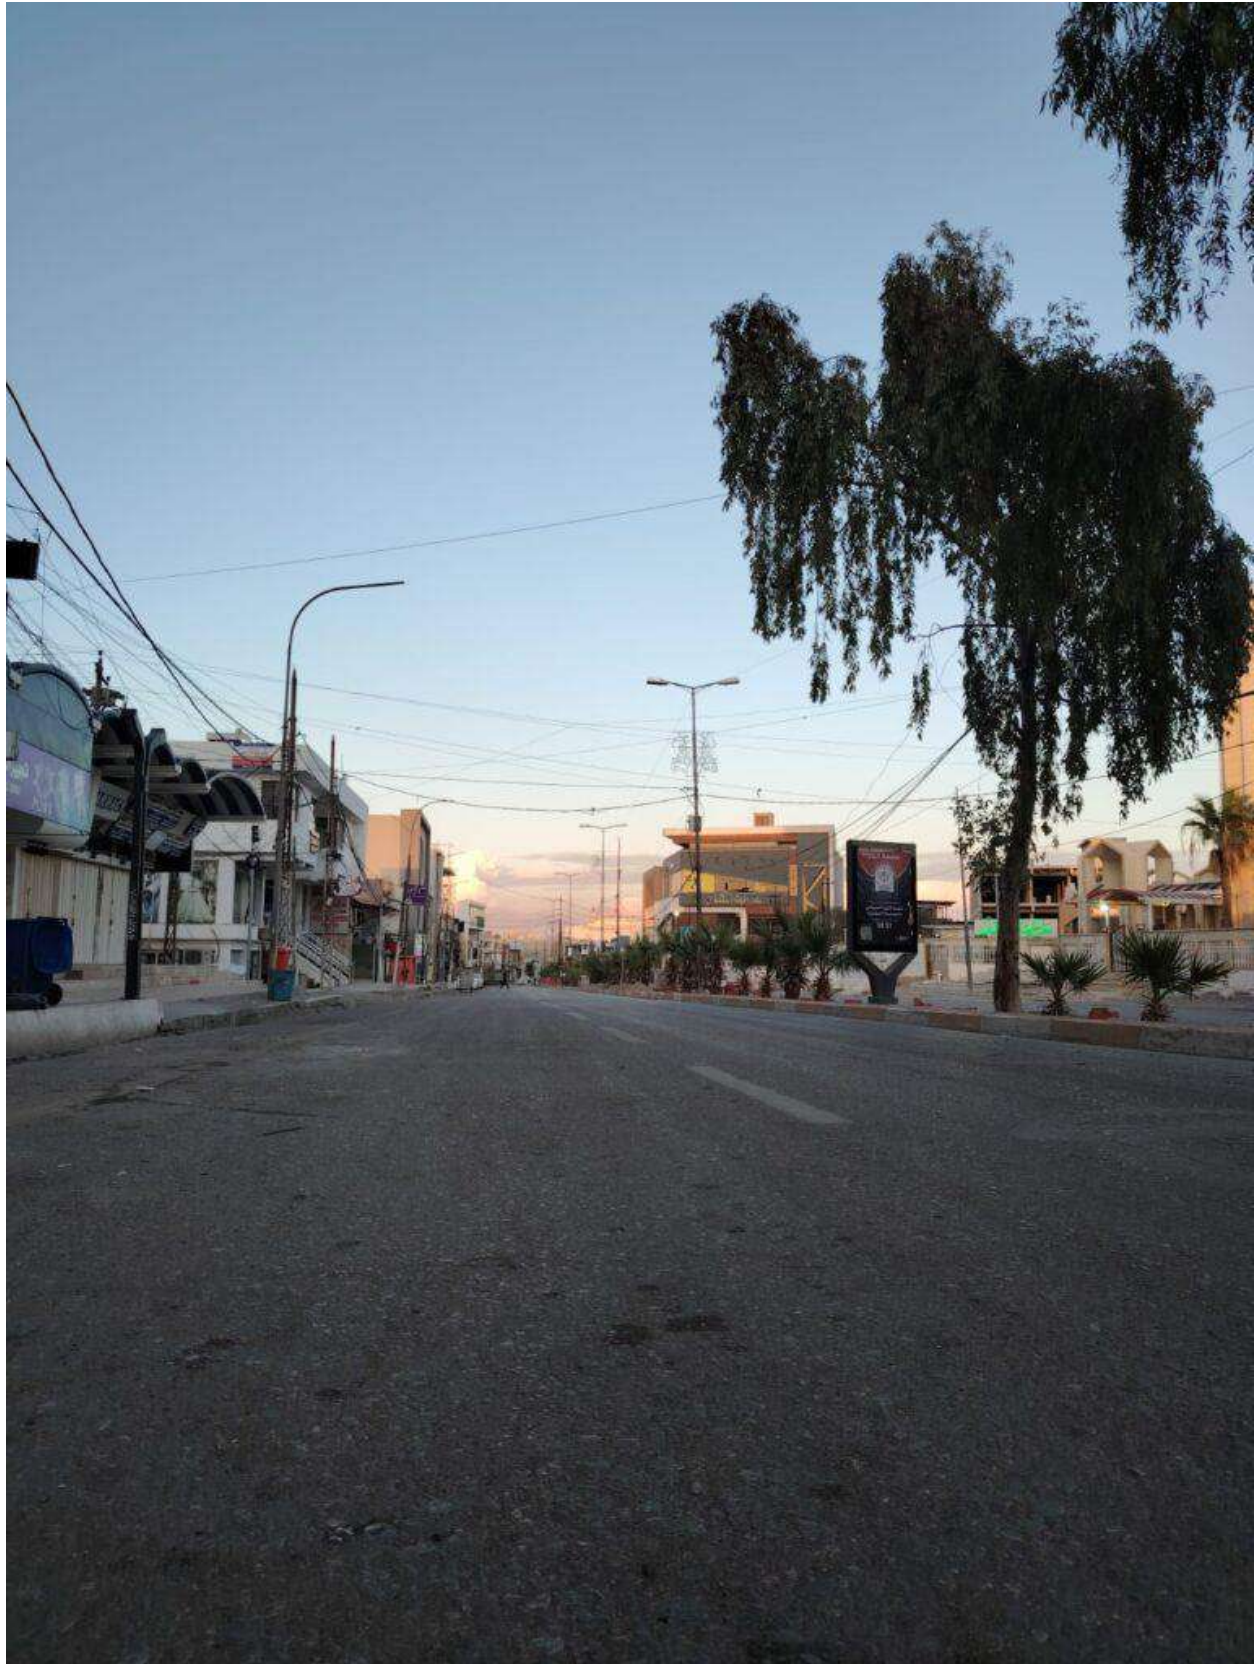

The camera lens of the Media and Government Communication Division at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, documented Mosul city's adherence to the curfew on the evening of Wednesday, November 20, 2024.

Iraq as a whole is witnessing a general population census on this date and the following day, marking the first census conducted in more than twenty-five years. The streets appeared deserted of pedestrians and vehicles, except for some emergency and humanitarian cases. Meanwhile, commercial shops and markets closed their doors to ensure the success of the census, which is considered one of the most important developmental, economic, and social pillars for any nation or country worldwide.

May God protect Iraq and its people, and may success be granted by His will.

November 6, 2024

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Hosts an Educational Health Seminar Organized by Al-Quds Health Center on the Dangers of Smoking and Drugs

The educational health seminar organized by Al-Quds Health Center at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, addressed the issues of smoking and drug abuse as two plagues that devastate community health, along with effective methods to protect our youth from them. The seminar took place on Tuesday, November 5, 2024.

The seminar, which consisted of four lectures, aimed to raise awareness about smoking addiction, its subsequent negative health effects, and the factors driving individuals to engage in it. Additionally, the seminar discussed the dangers of drugs and the signs that may indicate a person's substance use.

بالأمم مع جامعة الموصل بكلية العلوم السياسية
 نظم دائرة صحة أنبلي / قطاع الرعاية الصحية الأولية الأبرار
 من خلال
 مركز صحي القدس ببلدة الأنبار / الشريعة
 دولة تكليفية يخلو
 "المدخلين والمختبرات... أمطار نضالين بصحة المجتمع"
 بتاريخ ٢٠٢٤/٩/٢٥ الموافق يوم الثلاثاء

December 10, 2024

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Hosts a Scientific Workshop on Reproductive Health Organized by Al-Ma'loomah Center for Research and Development

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul, in cooperation with the Women's Affairs Committee, held a scientific workshop on reproductive health organized by the Al-Ma'lomah Center for Research and Development on Monday, December 9, 2024.

Reproductive health public policies constitute a vital part of comprehensive health policies aimed at improving the health of individuals, families, and communities. These policies focus on providing reproductive health services effectively and with quality, while respecting human rights and addressing the diverse needs of different groups. The workshop also addressed various dimensions of reproductive health, including legal, economic, social, and educational aspects.

The workshop consisted of two lectures delivered alternately by Dr. Nuran Omar Talal and Ms. Sara Najib Khalaf, both from the aforementioned center. The session was moderated by Ms. Raghad Adel Nazem, also from the same center.

The event was partially attended by the Scientific Assistant, Lecturer Dr. Khairallah Sibhan Al-Jubouri, Head of the Media and Government Communication Division, Senior Engineer Hasan Younis Abdullah, and a number of female affiliates of the college, including faculty members, staff, and students.

November 13, 2024

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Launches an Awareness Campaign in Support of the General Population Census

#Participate_in_the_Census_to_Build_Iraq

The College of Political Science at the University of Mosul launched an awareness campaign in support of the General Population and Housing Census starting Wednesday, November 13, 2024.

On the first day of the campaign, the Director of Nineveh Statistics, Mr. Nawfal Suleiman Talab, and his accompanying delegation were received by the College Dean. They discussed frameworks for cooperation between the two parties to support and strengthen their joint efforts, including the upcoming census scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday, November 20–21, 2024. A seminar was also held highlighting the census's significance and necessity, as well as the technical and administrative procedures undertaken over recent months leading up to the census day and beyond.

Meanwhile, the hashtag #Participate_in_the_Census_to_Build_Iraq was launched. Several mobile teams were formed to commence soon, aiming to educate and raise awareness about the census, its importance for development, and the management of financial and human resources.

The campaign is held under the patronage of the University President, Professor Dr. Qusay Kamal Al-Din Al-Ahmadi, supervised by the Dean of the College of Political Science, Assistant Professor Dr. Tarek Muhammad Tayeb Dhafer, with participation from faculty members, staff, and students.

November 13, 2024

The Guidance Committee of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Conducts a Workshop for Students

The Guidance Committee of the Public Policy Branch at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, conducted an advisory workshop attended by first-year students on Tuesday, November 12, 2024.

Members of the committee led the workshop, discussing the topic of trust and ways to build and establish it between students and faculty members.

The workshop was held under the patronage of the Dean of the College, Assistant Professor Dr. Tarek Muhammad Tayeb Dhaher, in cooperation with the Continuing Education Unit.

December 11, 2024

The Head of the Psychological Guidance Unit at the College of Political Science Attends an Advisory Lecture on Academic Behavior for First-Year Students

Organized by the Presidency of the University of Mosul

The Psychological Guidance and Educational Counseling Unit at the Presidency of the University of Mosul held an advisory lecture on academic behavior for first-year students on Monday, December 9, 2024. The lecture was attended by officials from guidance divisions and units across various colleges and research centers, including the Head of the Psychological Guidance and Educational Behavior Unit at the College of Political Science, Lecturer Dr. Shaimaa Nazim Al-Obaidi.

Several key topics were addressed, such as academic behavior related to curricula and how to engage with course material in a manner compatible with students' levels of understanding. The lecture also discussed interpersonal relationships between students and instructors, as well as among students themselves. The disciplinary behavior section emphasized the importance of the existing rules and regulations governing interactions between faculty and students within the framework of the university institution.

November 6, 2024

Volunteer Activity by Students of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul

A group of third-year students at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, designed small posters displayed on the student bulletin board to promote a culture of combating corruption and its prevention. This activity took place on Tuesday, November 5, 2024.

This initiative was a voluntary student effort, supervised by Assistant Professor Dr. Marwan Salem Ali and Lecturer Dr. Ali Ghanem Muhammad.

We proudly acknowledge the participating students: Zaid Khalaf Ibrahim, Zaki Shaker Khalaf, Muhammad Afdal Omar, Osama Zaid Abdulwahab, and Salem Walid Salem.

These commendable efforts and roles reflect the dedication of our esteemed students to actively contribute to awareness campaigns that foster community development.

November 5, 2024

The Psychological Guidance Unit Organizes an Advisory Workshop for Students of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul on Rumors and

Their Effects on the Individual and Society

The Psychological Guidance and Educational Counseling Unit at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, organized an advisory workshop for the college students on rumors and their effects on the individual and society, held on Monday, November 4, 2024.

The workshop covered the nature, causes, types, and factors contributing to the spread of rumors, followed by a discussion of their impact on both individuals and society.

The workshop consisted of three lectures delivered by the Unit Head, Lecturer Dr. Shaimaa Nazim Hammoudi, along with Assistant Lecturers Sara Jasim Muhammad and Hudhaifa Fathallah Ali.

Held under the patronage of the College Dean, the workshop was part of the unit's annual plan and was attended by a large number of students.

November 30, 2024

The Psychological Guidance Unit of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Holds a Student Dialogue Seminar on Electronic Blackmail

The Psychological Guidance and Educational Counseling Unit at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, held an advisory dialogue seminar on electronic blackmail on Thursday, November 28, 2024.

The seminar, chaired by the Unit Head, Lecturer Dr. Shaimaa Nazim Obaidi, consisted of three lectures delivered by Lecturer Sajida Farhan Hussein, Lecturer Hadeel Nawaf Ahmed, and Assistant Lecturer Sara Jasim Muhammad.

The seminar concluded with the recommendation that the Iraqi legislature expedite the discussion and enactment of a law addressing electronic blackmail. It also emphasized the importance of faculty members organizing advisory seminars to guide and raise awareness among students about the issue and ways to address it.

The seminar was held under the patronage of the College Dean and in cooperation with the Continuing Education Unit, targeting the student community.

December 12, 2024

The Psychological Guidance Unit of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Conducts a Student Advisory Workshop on the Menace of Drugs

The Psychological Guidance and Educational Counseling Unit at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, conducted its advisory workshop on drugs as a social menace on Wednesday, December 11, 2024.

The workshop addressed the psychological and social effects of drug use, the impact of drugs on international security, and the role of psychological guidance in raising awareness among university students.

It consisted of three lectures delivered by the Unit Head, Lecturer Dr. Shaimaa Nazim Hammoudi, alongside Assistant Lecturers Sara Jasim Muhammad and Naba Azuddin Muhammad.

The workshop was held under the patronage of the College Dean and targeted the student community.

November 27, 2024

The Psychological Guidance Unit of the College of Political Science at the University of Mosul Conducts a Student Advisory Workshop on University Bullying

The Psychological Guidance and Educational Counseling Unit at the College of Political Science, University of Mosul, conducted a student advisory workshop on university bullying and its effects on Tuesday, November 26, 2024.

The workshop, chaired by the Unit Head, Lecturer Dr. Shaimaa Nazim Obaidi, consisted of three lectures delivered by Assistant Professor Dr. Saadi Ibrahim Hussein, Assistant Lecturer Raghad Nizar Saeed, and Assistant Lecturer Zainab Amel Mar'i. The speakers addressed that the bully or aggressor's behavior stems from a lack of responsibility and awareness, deriving pleasure from harming others and witnessing their pain and pleas. This results in various forms of suffering for the victims, ranging from mild to severe psychological, social, or physical trauma.

The workshop was held under the patronage of the College Dean, in collaboration with the Continuing Education Unit, targeting the student body.

February 23, 2024

The College of Political Science Organizes an Advisory Workshop on “Equality in Education as a Gateway to Minority Integration”

As part of its annual scientific activities program for the academic year 2023–2024, the College of Political Science, Department of Public Policy, in cooperation with the Continuing Education Unit, held an advisory workshop entitled “Equality in Education as a Gateway to Minority Integration” on Thursday, February 22, 2024. The workshop was presented by Professor Dr. Salem Matar Abdullah.

The workshop aimed to define the concepts of equality and social integration and to explain how education—particularly higher education—serves as a key pathway to achieving this integration. It highlighted student admission models reflecting equality in both undergraduate and graduate studies. The session witnessed active engagement and contributions from the participants.

