

www.350q.org

Public law branch
College of Law /
University of Mosul

An overview of the public law branch

The Public Law Branch was established in the academic year (1993-1994) and is concerned with teaching students the laws that govern the legal relationship in which the state enters as the holder of sovereignty and authority, based on the traditional division of law. The branch includes specializations (constitutional law, criminal law, administrative law, public finance). Financial legislation, public international law, (work

The Public Law Branch grants a doctorate and .master's degree in its precise specializations

The branch has many scientific, cultural, and community service activities, both actual and virtual, as the branch held many scientific seminars, workshops, dozens of discussion circles, and many initiatives in community .service

Branch Council

With regards

Quality Assurance and Performance Evaluation
Division College of Law/University of Mosul