

Vision & Mission & Objectives

Private law branch

College of Law / University of

Mosul

Vision & Mission & Objectives

Private law branch

College of Law / University of Mosul

The Vision

tStriving diligently to consolidate the correct understanding of the students of the College of Law for preliminary and postgraduate study in the field of legal sciences in the private law branch and work to improve the capabilities and efficiency of the teaching staff of the branch and push them to outstanding scientific, applied and administrative performance, and to join efforts to highlight the role of law .in achieving the goals of sustainable development

the message

The solid scientific building of students in order to graduate an educated generation that believes in its scientific mission in the field of law, and to provide state institutions, departments and the private sector with legal cadres and .competencies with precise specializations

the Objectives

- 1-Raising the student's academic level by paying attention to the quality of the curriculum to be simultaneous with raising .the level of teaching performance
- 2-Keeping pace with scientific developments in various fields related to the precise specializations of the private law .branch
- 3-Enhancing the scientific capabilities of the branch's teachers and qualifying them for development and creativity by involving them in training courses, seminars, and .discussion groups inside and outside the branch

- 4-Integrating scientific study and practical reality and developing methods for dealing with emerging legal .problems
- 5-Striving to develop new scientific branches that emerge .from the precise specializations of the branch
- 6-Constructive and effective contribution to community .service
- 7-Extending cooperation with other scientific branches and .intensifying efforts to achieve the college's goals
- 8-Strengthening curricula and scientific curricula for preliminary and postgraduate studies in the field of private law, by reviewing the educational curricula systems of an .elite group of international and Arab law colleges