

Tasks of the Quality Assurance and Performance Evaluation Unit

1. University Performance Evaluation Responsibility:

- Evaluating performance and its quality within the college.
- Establishing a database for college activities to develop the educational process.
- Conducting studies to align educational outcomes with the labor market.
- Evaluating programs and outcomes using various measurement tools.
- Applying quality assurance standards to ensure accreditation is achieved.
- Following up on the self-assessment of the college's activities and programs.
- Implementing supporting tasks for university performance evaluation.

2. Training and Technical Support Responsibility:

- Using self-assessment results to develop the educational process.
- Continuous improvement of college performance.
- Conducting courses and workshops to promote a culture of quality.
- Developing programs to improve education, scientific research, and community service.
- Developing teaching staff in the field of quality assurance.
- Implementing supporting tasks for performance improvement.

3. Laboratory Accreditation Responsibility:

- Improving college laboratories according to international standards.
- Documenting and coding technical specifications for devices and equipment.
- Calibrating devices to ensure their efficiency.
- Following up on calibration programs with specialized authorities.