Welcome from the Dean

Speech of the dean of the college of the Islamic sciences

Praise be to Allah and may peace be on his prophet and all his households and companions...to proceed

Since the establishment in 2004, the college of Islamic sciences has been the supportive of the scientific process and research despite the dark period that the city of Mosul has gone through in the previous years but, after the liberation it returned back again as the university of Mosul with its colleges and professors has done to declare its acceptance to the moderation of the principles of sharia.

The college of the Islamic sciences, through its unified curricula approved by the committee of the Deans of the colleges of the Islamic sciences adopts the principles of the mental construction for its students, in accordance with the provisions of the sharia which calls for peaceful, co-existence, and respect for other religions.

The college always urges its staff to support the scientific research process through participating in the international and local seminars and conferences as well as encouraging the writing of scientific and methodological books, which support the new curriculum of the ministry.

The college of Islamic sciences has three departments:

_Shari

_Faith and Islamic thoughts

_Hadith and its sciences

There is a declared intend to open new departments in the college, if God will, an example, a department of contrastive religions, which is needed by the college in particular and the city of Mosul in general.

As the college contains a scientific journal that receives all the scientific researches specialized in forensic studies and Arabic; In addition to that it includes a scientific library with a lot of diverse sources in forensic and humanitarian sciences to provide the post graduates and the undergraduates with all the resources and periodicals they need.

The college seeks to communicate with its counterparts in the Iraqi universities through scientific agreements and participation in the educational activities that support the scientific process. Last but not least we ask Al- Mawla, the Exalted, the Majestic to help us to serve our university and our beloved country.

Prof. Dr. Taha Hamad Mukhlif

Acting dean of the college of the Islamic sciences

Department of Hadith and its Sciences / Morning Classes

prof. Dr. Ahmed Hameed Saeed / Head of the department of Hadith and its Sciences

Assistant prof. Ahmed Saleh Hameed/ Department Coordinator

Vision

To disseminate the human culture that recognizes the deep cognitive dimensions of Hadith Sharif and deals with the narrow ideas in order to promote cultural and social levels against the cultural and social absence. At a time when Islam is subjected to attacks of distortion and intrigue to show the world that Islam is a religion, which adopts terrorism, murder, and sabotage, forgetting the prophets saying (may Allah peace be upon him):" Neither of us called for intolerance, nor of us who fought on intolerance, and none of us who died on intolerance ". It also unifies the curriculum which helps in the unification of visions, ideas, and goals because the Hadith sharif scientific and social status affects directly in both the scientific and ethical sides that estimate the Islamic societies.

Mission

Activating the role of Hadith to occupy its true place among the Islamic sciences as the second source of Islamic legislation, including the actual sunnah of the prophet and imams of the prophet's households (peace be upon them), and their behaviors, actions and sciences.

Targets

Raising a generation of young people who are able to carry the Islamic message based on the Hadith Sharif and launched from the source of authenticity and its correct source and unify the vision of students to lead them to the unity of Muslims especially in our Iraqi society due to the great role played by the college of Islamic sciences in Iraqi society in particular, and the Islamic nation in general.
